Monroe Historical Society

Commemorative Brick Sale!

The Monroe Historical Society is selling these bricks to assist with the preservation of Monroe's continuing history. The bricks may be engraved with the names of people, clubs, business, or anyone that the purchaser wishes to honor. Bricks may be ordered to celebrate a retirement, birthday, wedding, class graduation year, or other memorable event.

These bricks are part of the walkway leading to the entrance of the Museum at 10 East Elm Street. The bricks may contain three lines of type, with each line containing fourteen spaces. This includes every letter, number, punctuation mark, and space between words or names. The Monroe Historical Society reserves the right to refuse to use any wording that they deem inappropriate. Orders cannot be accepted by telephone to assure the accuracy of the order.

Payments may be made by check and returned with this form to Monroe Historical Society, P.O. Box 82, Monroe, OH 45050.
